Vision statement

The Vision of Triathlon BC is to have a vibrant membership that enjoys a positive, healthy lifestyle; we will provide guidance and resources to members, coaches, race directors and others to promote and develop the sport, and will represent the membership provincially, nationally and internationally.

Mission statement

The Mission of Triathlon BC is to provide support, encouragement and a positive environment for our members to achieve their highest personal goals in the sport, whether it be to finish their first event, or to compete internationally.

We are the sole governing body in the Province of BC for triathlons, duathlons and related multi-sports events, and offer guidance, resources and opportunity for members and others to become involved in a sport that promotes a healthy lifestyle that can be maintained throughout all stages of life.
